

GDPR Notice

Sara Safety Solutions Ltd is an on-line provider of food safety training courses. This notice sets out how we may collect and use information about you, our candidates.

We receive information directly from you when you purchase a course. This information will include personal details such as your name and address and email address. Sara Jones, Data Controller and Director of the company, holds and uses this information for the purpose of the business only to comply with legal obligations. We only request the minimum information required.

Your information is held on the Learning Management System (LMS) within a secure database. If you wanted to, you could be provided with the information that we hold about you on request but it is only what you have input yourself to purchase the course or what your employer has entered. Any information contained in emails (such as via receipts) is deleted as soon as possible from email and, if needed to be retained will be done so on a secure database.

It is only Sara Jones that has access to your information and the company Mondi Print and Design who host the webpage and assist in management of the LMS. They do not have permission to use your information.

If you wish to have your data removed at any point then please do not hesitate to contact Sara Jones.
